Day

01

Start your day exploring La Sagrada Família, Gaudí's most iconic work, followed by a visit to the surreal landscapes of Park Güell. Next, stroll down Passeig de Gràcia to admire Casa Batlló and La Pedrera, both showcasing Gaudí's unique creativity. In the evening, embark on a Tapas Tour through El Born and Eixample, stopping at places like Cañete for croquetas and grilled seafood and Quimet y Quimet for montaditos and seafood.

Day

02

Start your day at the Picasso Museum, then visit the MOCO Museum for contemporary art before enjoying an inventive lunch at Mont Bar. In the afternoon, consider chartering a private yacht for stunning views of Barcelona's skyline and end the day with a seafood dinner at Botafumeiro in Gràcia.

Day

03

Spend the day exploring the Gothic Quarter with its narrow streets, hidden squares and stunning architecture. Visit the Barcelona Cathedral, then head to Plaça del Rei and El Call, the medieval Jewish quarter. For lunch, take a guided tour of Mercat de la Boqueria, sampling local delicacies like jamón and seafood. End your day dining at one of Barcelona's stylish restaurants, enjoying delectable cuisine and cocktails.

Day

04

Spend your morning exploring Montjuïc, a historic hill offering panoramic views of Barcelona, where you can visit the Montjuïc Castle, the Magic Fountain and the beautiful Joan Miró Foundation. Afterward, enjoy lunch at Can Fisher, specializing in Mediterranean seafood with stunning views. In the evening, head to Paradiso, a hidden speakeasy-style bar, for inventive cocktails and a unique night out.

Day

05

If you haven't explored Barcelona's shopping scene yet, your last day is the perfect time. Each neighborhood offers its own distinct vibe. In the Gothic Quarter, winding streets are lined with boutique shops offering everything from vintage finds to artisanal crafts. El Raval is vibrant and edgy, known for quirky stores and galleries. Eixample features elegant, high-end shopping along wide avenues with designer boutiques. For a bohemian touch, head to El Born, famous for its stylish, trendy shops.
